

The mortification of sin and the flesh is a deep and complex issue in the Christian life, and it is hard to sum it up in one short article. But we know that every believer will go through it, for it is in their nature to follow the Spirit, and the Spirit is not at home in this world. Over and over again, Christians find themselves at crossroads—one sign pointing to "this world" and the other pointing to "the next world." The decision was summed up perfectly by Jesus, who said: "Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few" (Matthew 7:13-14). Christian theology holds that the Holy Spirit helps believers in the "mortification of the sins of the flesh."

Beloved, we need the enabling grace of God and the enduement of the Holy Spirit to mortify the works of the flesh. It is my prayer that the flesh will never prevail over your life in Jesus Name.

INTRODUCTORY SENTENCE

But be doers of the Word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. James 1:22

FOOD FOR THOUGHT MORTIFY THE FLESH.

The word mortification comes from the root word mort, which has to do with death and dying. In the Bible, the word is used to denote the killing of the sin nature, or the subduing of the flesh. The word mortify appears only in the King James Version of the Bible, in two verses. The first is Romans 8:13, which says, "For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live" (KJV). The second is, "Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry" (Colossians 3:5 KJV).

In more modern versions, the word mortify is translated "put to death." In this verse, we see the basic difference between the life of a believer and the life of an unbeliever. The believer is encouraged to put to death the deeds of the flesh—what Paul calls "the deeds of the body" (Romans 8:13) or "what is earthly in you" (Colossians 3:5). Paul defines "what is earthly in you" as "sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry" (Colossians 3:5). The person who is ruled by these things is said to be "in the flesh" and to have his mind set on the flesh, which is death (Romans 8:5-6). But the believer sets his mind on the Spirit, and the things of the Spirit, which is life and peace (Romans 8:5-6). The reason for this is found in the very next verse: "For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot" (Romans 8:7).

Jesus made several statements about this believer's "death in life" paradox. He said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life" (John 12:24-25). Jesus' life on Earth was one of purposeful death; His followers live under the same principle. We may not be martyred in a dramatic way, but the Christian life follows a pattern of death to self, and life to God. That is why Paul quoted the Psalmist, saying "For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered" (Romans 8:36). We look forward to the next life as the true life, and for that reason, we separate ourselves from this world. The result of this attitude is often suffering, but the Bible makes it clear that this is normal, even comparing us to soldiers on a foreign battlefield. "Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him" (2 Timothy 2:3).

BIBLE STUDY OUTLINE

DATE: 27TH MAY, 2019
TOPIC: A KINGDOM THAT CANNOT BE SHAKEN
TEXT: HEBREWS 12: 18 - 29

INTRODUCTION:

A kingdom that cannot be shaken suggest that there is another kingdom which can be shaken. A kingdom which cannot be shaken speaks about the kingdom of God established by Jesus the Messiah.

There is no doubt that we are living in a very volatile world yet men are bound to the earth and its treasures or pursuits instead of putting their confidence in what is lasting and eternal. People spend more time piling up possessions instead of striving to develop Christ like Character.

This study is meant to awaken us to the reality of the insatiability of this world and the desirability of the unshakable kingdom that Christ offers.

QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSIONS

1. What does it mean to receive the kingdom that is unshakable?
Romans 8: 37 – 39; 14: 9; Hebrews 13: 14; 11: 10.
2. How can we receive this kingdom?
John 3: 3 – 5; 1 Timothy 6: 10 – 21; Romans 12: 1 – 2; 2 Timothy 2: 19
3. What should be our response in the face of the shaken or the trouble of this world?
1 Peter 1: 17; Hebrews 4:16; 21: 15.
4. Further instruction to us who are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken.
Hebrews 12: 25, 28; 2 Peter 3: 11 – 14, 17 – 18.

CONCLUSION

Knowing the volatility of the world and that God will soon destroy the world and judge the unrighteous, we must not become attached to this world system of things within it. Our values, goals and purpose in life must be centred around God and the hope of his unshakable kingdom.

Where is your treasure? Is it God or the world? Is God your security or your retirement plan? Is God your fellowship or your family?

MEMORY VERSE

“For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” Matthew 6: 21.
