

He will stand before kings, he will not serve before obscure men" Proverbs. 22:29. The problem is in the hand of the farmer or in this case, in our hands whether we are prepared to labour and faithfully scatter the seed. The reason is that God has given us sufficient promise that all things are set to make our seeds prosper- The Lord is ready and willing to bless the works of our hands both in the field and in the household of faith. The goodness of God brings blessings on the seeds we release. All the forces of nature work harmoniously together under the guidance of God for the harvest of the earth.

In 2 Corinthians. 9:5, we are also called to remember that "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly and whoever sows generously will also reap generously". How is your sowing - sparingly or bountifully? Brethren, we must realise and accept that our blessings and prosperities are tied to the seeds in our hands or in our pocket. We are by this message encouraged to release the seed we have that we may be blessed.

It is my prayer that as you sow bountifully to support God's work, He will bless you in return and you will never lose your reward in the name of Jesus.

Have a joyful celebration as you move God's heart with your life and sowing offering.

Your brother, friend, Pastor & Archdeacon
'Seyi Pirisola.

BIBLE STUDY OUTLINE

DATE: 17TH JUNE, 2019

TOPIC: STEWARSHIP

TEXT: LUKE 13: 1-13

INTRODUCTION:

Stewardship is all about service and work for a cause. It is also about managing affairs for a superior to whom the steward is accountable to. Colossians 3: 23. In a sense, every Christian is a steward- stewards of God's resources in our hands and stewards of saved souls and the souls awaiting salvation. 1 Corinthians 4: 2. The Lord Jesus Christ's entire earthly ministry at the Right Hand of God Almighty is an example of stewardship. At the request of the father, the Lord Jesus Christ agreed to come down to earth as an acceptable sacrifice for the salvation of mankind. In all that the Lord did, He remained accountable to the Father. How accountable have you been in your family, in the church, at work and in soul winning? There is no stewardship without accountability.

QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSIONS

1. What is the relationship between accountability and stewardship?
Matthew 25: 20 – 21; Hebrews 13: 5.
2. When and where are Christ's stewards going to render accounts?
Timothy 2: 7; Revelation 22: 10 – 14; 2 Corinthians 9: 6 – 15.
3. How many stewards do we have in our local church? Why do we have many stewards?
4. How many stewards good do we have in our church today? Why are they good stewards? Luke 13: 8

CONCLUSION

Every Christian is a steward. Stewardship goes with accountability to the superior who appointed the steward. The bane of church growth and soul winning is that Christian stewards have lost sight of their accountability to the Almighty God as stewards of His Resources and expectations in the Great Co-Mission

MEMORY VERSE: "whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men".

Colossians 3: 23

24. THE NEW CHURCH BUILDING
