

David and the people of God rejoiced greatly because the leaders had given willingly, for with a whole heart they had offered freely to the LORD (1 Chronicles 29:9). This type of rare opportunity has presented itself in our midst and I thank God that members of this congregation are doing well in this regard.

When God commanded Moses to build the tabernacle, the people of God responded enthusiastically also (Exodus 35). The key word here is "willing." The people gave out of a willing heart (2 Corinthians 9:7; 8:1-5). Interestingly, they had to be told to stop giving to the project (Exodus 35:20-24; 36:4-7). In addition to material gifts, many of the people of God willingly offered their skills and talents to build the tabernacle (Exodus 35:25-29). A grateful Christian offers his service to God happily. He serves Him with gladness. There is no holding back. There is no complaint from him. Whenever he is called upon, he willingly and happily offers his service to the Lord.

There are so many gifted and talented people in our midst. There are so many opportunities to serve God. As you offer yourself for God's service, please do so in deep gratitude because God is preparing a kingdom for you, He is saving you from sin and misery, giving you life everlasting and life superabundant (John 3:16; 10:10; Romans 6:23), promising you a place in heaven (John 14:1-3) and giving you a blessed hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18). Only such service pleases God and is acceptable in His sight.

INTRODUCTORY SENTENCE

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope of which He has called us. Ephesians1: 17-18

FOOD FOR THOUGHT INDICES OF ACCEPTABLE SERVICE

We all serve the Lord in one way or another. We are happy to be of service to God. But have we paused and thought for a moment whether the kind of service that we offer to God is acceptable to Him? Here are two aspects of the Lord's service. First is the negative aspect of the service which is a type of service that is not acceptable to God. That kind of service is sloppy and full of complaints. The second aspect is that which is pleasing to God, it is a service where everything done in the service of God is an act of worship, in gladness and to the glory of His name. "Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing, "Psalm 100:2) and a hearty service that pleases Him (as Paul said, "And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men" (Colossians 3:23).

Acceptable Christian service is more than just a good program because it is done out of a grateful heart. Such service is sincere and free of hypocrisy. A program may run well and receive men's praise, but if it is run by ungrateful people, it will be run by self and for self and for people to see and admire. We need to constantly remind ourselves that whatever we do, we are to work at it with all our hearts, as unto the Lord and not unto people. Many things are absolutely needful for the acceptance of any service rendered unto God: of these some are not stated in the text, but they are so important that I commence with mentioning them. The first is that the person who attempts to serve God should himself be accepted. The offerer must himself be born again or his offering will be tainted by his condition and be inevitably unacceptable.

If we are to serve God acceptably, it must be under unquantifiable obligation to Him without any fear or apology for humans. Acceptable service must be rendered to God through His grace that He has bestowed upon us. "Let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptably." Note, then, that acceptable service to God is not offered in the power of a natural person but in the service of God everything must be the fruit of grace. You are to serve the Lord, not in the strength of your own wit or experience, or talent, but in the energy of the new life which God has given you, and in the power of the grace which is continually bestowed upon you moment by moment as you seek it of the Lord.

To serve God acceptably we must do it with reverence. The angels feel their own littleness when they stand before the presence of the dread Supreme. You and I who are much less than angels, and have sinned, should, when we come before God, be covered with blushes. Our heart should be filled with wonder that we are called to this high privilege, though we are so unworthy of it.

Acceptable service to God requires that we live a life of Holiness. God is Holy and He expects us to be holy (1 Peter 1:15, 16). A holy Christian is a powerful weapon in the hand of God. Service to God requires absolute devotion and commitment. God must be served wholeheartedly (Colossians 3:23). One good example in the Old Testament where God's people served God wholeheartedly was the building of the temple. Because King David was a man of war, he was not allowed to build the temple, but his son Solomon was allowed. However, he was able to make preparation (as much as possible) for Solomon to do it (1 Chronicles 29:1-5a). Then he challenged the congregation - "And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?" (1 Chronicles 29:5b) And the leaders of Israel responded readily and enthusiastically (1 Chronicles 29:6-8). Then we read how King

II Timothy 1:7

COLLECT FOR TRINITY 10

Almighty Father, Whose Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of our brethren we do also for Him; give us the will to be the servant of others as He was the Servant of all, who gave up His life and died for us; but is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and for ever. Amen.

BIBLE STUDY OUTLINE

DATE: 26TH AUGUST, 2019
TOPIC: IF THE LORD HAD NOT BEEN FOR US
TEXT: MATTHEW 2: 1-23

INTRODUCTION:

It is exciting and heart-warming to see that we gradually coming to the last quarter of the year 2019 despite that challenges, troubles and dangers we encountered at different times and places. More importantly, is to acknowledge the power, protection and provision of God over our lives.

Indeed, God has not left us to the destructive and evil plots of the enemies against our souls. The birth of Jesus, which came as fulfilment of God's promise to mankind, was expected to be herald with joy and gratitude; but Herod rather devised plan to kill Him. God, who knows the intent of all men, disappointed his wicked crafty device (job 5: 12). In the same way, we have seen God's wonderful acts of mercy and kindness toward us all. This study will help us to understand that we need to be spiritually sensitive in order to escape the evil plots of the enemy.

QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSIONS

1. Why did Herod seek to kill Jesus? Matthew 2: 3 – 8; John 8: 44.
2. How can we escape from evil plots of our enemies just like Joseph experienced? Matthew 2: 13 – 14; Ephesians 6:10 – 18; 2 Kings 6: 8 – 10.
3. Discuss what would have been the fate of people today if Herod succeeded in killing Jesus in His infancy.
4. Enumerate the benefits we enjoy when the Lord is for us. Romans 8: 31; Numbers 14: 6 – 9; Psalm 118: 1 – 7; Isaiah 51: 16; Hebrews 13: 5 – 6; Psalm 121: 1 – 8; Psalm 27: 1 - 3

CONCLUSION

Despite all schemes and evil plots of Herod, God who is committed to His salvation plan for us subverted them all. The numerous benefits we receive cannot be attributed to our righteousness or goodness, but His enduring mercies. How have you shown gratitude and appreciation to God? Truly, we have reason to echo it aloud, "If the Lord had not been for us..." His grace is sufficient to take us through the journey of life.

MEMORY VERSE

"If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us, them they would have swallowed us alive, when their wrath was kindled against us"

Psalms 124: 2- 3

LAGOS DIOCESE (ANGLICAN COMMUNION)

DIOCESAN ANTHEM

(TUNE: AUSTRIA)

Lagos Diocese, premier Diocese,
Of Anglican Communion;
We are primus inter pares,
First among equals, bless'd one.
Tenth December, nineteen, nineteen,
Praise the Lord! He's done great things,
Lagos Diocese, foremost Diocese,
Came to be, through love and peace.

Our Divine Mandate of five-fold,
Clear and apt, to build the Church;
From above came like that of old,
For the mission of the Church,
Priestly, Pastoral, Prophetic,

Pray'r and Praise to reach a peak.
Help, O Lord Thy charge to fulfill,
Thy perfect will to do still.

God our Father, bless our Diocese,
Bless our Bishop, we pray Thee,
Bless Thy people of this Diocese,
Our existence, keep for Thee,
All believers to edify,
And Thy name to glorify,
Multiply Disciples for Thee,
And at last to reign with Thee. Amen.

THE NEW CHURCH BUILDING

The God of Heaven will prosper us; therefore His servants will arise and build. As we labour to build, God shall build our finances, our families, and businesses in Jesus' name.
